JURY

The jury and the video selection panel of the SIEP consist of internationally recognised personalities of the dance world. A list of the video selection and Summer Intensive jury members will be available on the Prix de Lausanne's website www.prixdelausanne.org.

Throughout the Summer Intensive the jury will evaluate a candidate's potential as a ballet dancer by considering:

- Artistry
- Physical suitability
- Courage and individuality
- An imaginative and sensitive response to the music
- A clear grasp in communicating differing movement dynamics
- Technical facility, control, and coordination.

While advanced skills will be taken into account, jurors' primary focus will be on the candidate's potential to succeed as a professional ballet dancer.

AIM OF THE SUMMER INTENSIVE EUROPEAN PRESELECTION

The aim of the SIEP is to support talented ballet students on their way towards a professional career. The classical and contemporary dance classes, the coaching sessions as well as Thematic Workshops, will prepare its participants to engage in the Prix de Lausanne competition and encourage them to progress in an intelligent, healthy and non-competitive environment. It will provide a quality learning experience for the participants in a privileged context thanks to the Prix de Lausanne's expertise and experience.

Lausanne, from July 6th to July 11th, 2020

At the end of the week, the internationally renowned teachers, coaches and artistic director will select two to four candidates to participate in the 2021 Prix de Lausanne.
