

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS PRIX DE LAUSANNE 2021 VIDEO EDITION

Art. 1

DATES AND PLACE

The Prix de Lausanne 2021 Video Edition, international competition for young ballet dancers, is organised by the “Fondation en faveur de l'Art Chorégraphique” (hereafter: the Foundation), with headquarters in Lausanne, Switzerland. It will be held from Sunday, January 31st to Saturday, February 7th, 2021 in Switzerland and online throughout the world.

Mail should be addressed to:

Prix de Lausanne

Av. des Bergières 14

1004 Lausanne, Switzerland

registration@prixdelausanne.org

Tel.: +41 21/648 05 25

www.prixdelausanne.org

Artistic & Executive Director: Mrs Kathryn Bradney

Art. 2

JURY

The competition jury and the video selection panel of the Prix de Lausanne 2021 Video Edition consists of internationally recognised personalities of the dance world. A list of the competition jury members and details of the competition evaluation system can be viewed on the Prix de Lausanne's website www.prixdelausanne.org as of December 2020.

Art. 3

AIM OF THE PRIX DE LAUSANNE

The aim of the Prix de Lausanne 2021 Video Edition is to support talented ballet students on their way towards a professional career. The candidates will indicate on their registration form in which school or company they would like to pursue their training if they were to win a scholarship or an apprenticeship (see art. 15).

The prize winners will confirm their choice by March 10th, 2021. The Prix de Lausanne office works closely with prize winners, so they make an informed decision by providing information and by negotiating with partner institutions.

Art. 4

CONDITIONS FOR REGISTRATION

The competition is open to ballet students of all nationalities, born between the 7th of February 2002 and the 6th of February 2006.

Must withdraw from the competition:

Any candidate who is, or has been, under professional contract as a dancer;

Any candidate having received a firm job offer, including a place as a paid full-time apprentice, in a professional company (as per Swiss law, a firm offer is either a written or an oral offer which has such a content that its recipient may only accept the offer in order to conclude the contract) between the time of the registration and the date of the competition;

If any doubt, the candidate must inform the Prix de Lausanne office about her/his situation in order to be informed of his/her right to participate in the competition. The amateur status of competitors will be checked.

Exceptions can be made for candidates who received a fee for a performance organized by the candidate's school as part of his / her education and this fee was required to be paid by governmental law. If a candidate has received such a fee in the past, he / she has to notify the Prix de Lausanne's staff during the registration process.

Any deception related to this rule will result in expulsion from the competition, and the cancellation and required reimbursement of any prize that may have been awarded. In addition to this, the Prix de Lausanne shall communicate publicly the cancellation of the prize that may have been awarded to the candidate. The candidate shall not be authorized to boast his/her participation in the contest without mentioning his/her expulsion.

The organisers accept no responsibility for any candidate presenting themselves at the Prix de Lausanne with a handicap or injury that prevents them from participating in the competition. The organisers cannot be held responsible for any injury, illness or theft sustained by the participants during the competition. The participants are responsible for insuring themselves against accidents, illness and theft.

To participate in the video selection round, candidates must pay 175 (one hundred and seventy-five) Swiss Francs, non-refundable. This amount must be paid online by credit card before September 30th, 2020.

Those candidates selected to participate in the competition must pay an additional 200 (two hundred) Swiss Francs, non-refundable. This amount must be paid online by credit card before November 30th, 2020.

Payment must be made by credit card upon completion of the registration form on the Prix de Lausanne's website.

Candidates must read the document « Competition Procedure – Amendments for the Prix de Lausanne 2021 Video Edition ».

Art. 5

PRIX DE LAUSANNE AND HEALTH

The Prix de Lausanne aims to assist ballet students in evaluating their own talent and ability to have a professional career. It also supports the belief that optimal performance as a professional ballet dancer requires good physical and psychological health. While it is true the aesthetic values of classical ballet require dancers to be lean, it is vital that teachers, parents and dance students take care not to over emphasise these values in a manner that compromises health.

In line with this, a medical questionnaire has been designed by the Prix de Lausanne consulting physician to establish a sense of a candidate's ability to sustain the rigours of the competition. The questionnaire is included in the registration documents and must be completed in collaboration with the aspiring participant's doctor. The completed questionnaire is then sent by the candidate to the Prix de Lausanne's consulting physician (through the registration form) and becomes an integral part of the registration process.

Should there be any doubts about the candidate's overall health and physical condition after the medical examination and the video selection, the Prix de Lausanne's consultant physician will have the authority to decide whether that candidate may take part in the competition or not.

Candidates who have been cleared as suitable to participate but who, in the opinion of the Prix de Lausanne's consulting physician, give rise to concern at any point before or during the competition week must agree to meet, the Prix de Lausanne's consulting physician. Even though remotely, the Prix de Lausanne physician will follow each candidate and make sure they are fit to compete. Online meetings with the participant and the physician might be arranged.

With the candidate's permission, parents of the candidate and/or their teacher will be invited to take part in this consultation, which will determine whether the candidate may remain in the competition or not.

In all cases, the decision of the Prix de Lausanne's consulting physician is final.

Art. 6

DEADLINES FOR REGISTRATION

Medical records must be received by the Prix de Lausanne before September 30th, 2020. Please upload your documents using the online registration form. We do not accept paper copies.

Participants must register online and pay the first registration fee online by credit card before September 30th, 2020. We do not accept paper copies or bank transfers.

Digital file recordings must be received by the Prix de Lausanne office before October 18th, 2020.

Candidates selected to participate in the competition will be notified by October 29th, 2020.

The second set of entry forms and payment of the second registration fee must be received by the Prix de Lausanne office before November 30th, 2020.

Should a candidate not meet the above-mentioned deadlines, their right to participate will be forfeited.

Art. 7

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Thanks to generous sponsors, the Prix de Lausanne can offer financial support to candidates who may be in need. Candidates must contact the Prix de Lausanne to inform that they will apply for financial support before their registration for the video selection, on September 30th, 2020, the latest. If the candidate is selected, he/she will then have to send the formal application before November 3rd, 2020.

The formal application for financial support must contain the following documents:

- A letter from the parents explaining the financial situation
- A letter from the teacher
- A copy of the parent's tax return from the previous year

Financial support

The Prix de Lausanne will consider the request formally and make a decision once the above-mentioned documents are received. Should the financial help be approved, the Prix de Lausanne will cover the following expenses for the participant travelling to audition in one of the Prix de Lausanne's partner school in 2021:

- Round-trip ticket from place of residence to the Audition's place including flight, train, buses
- Accommodation in a hotel room with breakfast included
- Daily stipend
- Insurance (if needed)
- Registration fees of CHF175 and CHF200.- (refunded)

Cancellation policy

The participant needs to provide a medical certificate should he/she cancels his/her participation in the competition.

Without proof, the participants will be responsible to pay the total amount of the costs incurred.

Further information about financial support can be asked at any time to info@prixdelausanne.org

Art. 8

FINANCIAL HELP FOR FILMING VIDEOS AND TAKING PHOTOS

In order to allow all candidates to submit the best quality video and photos, the Prix de Lausanne has decided to give each candidate CHF 500.- (five hundred swiss francs). This is to ensure all candidates can submit a high-quality video and should ONLY be used for the filming of the videos and taking quality photos. It could be used to hire a dance studio, a video camera, a photographer, etc.

Art. 9

RE-ENTERING

Candidates who have not won a Prix de Lausanne 2021 Video Edition apprenticeship or scholarship may participate as many times as their age allows them to. If a candidate has won a Prix de Lausanne apprenticeship or scholarship, he/she cannot participate again.

Art. 10

CHOICE OF PARTNER SCHOOLS CANDIDATES

The Prix de Lausanne encourages student's mobility and facilitates an international choice of schools. However, if a candidate who is currently studying in a partner school decides to remain at his/her current school the year following the competition, he/she must inform the Prix de Lausanne of this decision before the competition during the registration process, until Sunday January 31st, 2021, the latest. The Prix de Lausanne remains available to provide guidance regarding this matter.

Art. 11

PHOTOGRAPHS, VISUAL AND AUDIOVISUAL RECORDINGS AND THEIR BROADCASTING

All photographs, visual and audio-visual works and all types of recordings of the candidates' performance and participation to the competition, without limitation as to the technical means used to make such recordings, shall be the exclusive property of the Foundation. No visual or audio-visual recording of the candidates' variations and participation to the competition may be made without the Foundation's written authorisation. The candidates waive all rights to such recordings made by the Foundation or by any third party on behalf of the Foundation, their broadcasting, display, distribution or publication by any means, including by way of the Foundation's web site (www.prixdelausanne.org). The candidates are aware and agree that such recordings may be used for commercial or promotional purposes, including by authorised third parties, whatever the products or services advertised. Candidates agree that sponsors of the “Prix de Lausanne”, who finance prizes awarded to winners, may use images of the finalists and prize winners in their advertising campaigns. Such grant of rights by the candidates to the Foundation shall be permanent and irrevocable, without any geographic or time limits. Candidates shall not be entitled to any payment, participation, contribution, fee or other compensation of any kind in relation to such grant of right and hereby waive all rights to claim any such compensation or consideration from the Foundation or any third parties authorised by the Foundation to use the recordings. Only the board of directors of the Foundation is entitled to conclude contracts with television stations or private individuals.

The candidates understand and agree to not share their submitted classical and contemporary variation videos, as well as their submitted photos, on any channel, without the approval of the Prix de Lausanne.

Art. 12

DECISION MAKING BODIES

Only the board of directors of the “Fondation en faveur de l'Art Chorégraphique” has the right to final decisions on any deviation from the rules of the competition.

The selection panel's decision on the choice of candidates, drawn from the video selection, is final and irrevocable.

The competition jury's decisions on the selection and the finals, as well as the distribution of prizes, are final and irrevocable. If a jury member is associated with a school or has worked closely with a candidate, he/she does not have the right to vote for candidates coming from his/her school or the candidates with whom they have worked.

Only the French text of the rules applies.

*Please contact the Prix de Lausanne office for more details.

In principle, only one scholarship is available from each of the above-mentioned Partner Schools. However, on occasion, a partner school may agree to accept more than one prize winner. When more than one prize winner has selected the same school as their first choice of schools, decisions as to which winner is offered a place are based on each individual's ranking in the finals.

The school year for each of the Partner Schools generally runs for nine to ten months, starting in the autumn 2021 and finishing in June or July 2022 (except in the case of Australia and New Zealand where the school year is from January 2022 to December 2021). Prize winners may not postpone their scholarship and may not convert their scholarship into cash. As well, scholarships are only applicable to the selection of Partner Schools listed above. Upon selecting their school, the prize winner will agree to abide by the rules and regulations governing that particular school.

If a prize winner chooses a school which expresses reservations about the prize winner's choice, both will agree on discussing this choice with either the Artistic Director or a specialized collaborator appointed by the Artistic Director.

Prize money will be sent monthly as of September 2021 directly to the schools, who will arrange monthly payments to the prize winner. The sum of 20'000 Swiss Francs allocated to winners may not be sufficient in some cities to cover all living expenses. Therefore, Prix de Lausanne prize winners are urged to find out the cost of living in their selected city to determine to which extent their families may need to provide additional financial support. Some schools may provide additional financial assistance and the Prix de Lausanne can inform you if needed.

Concerns only schools: any prize winner receiving a firm job offer after the time of competition and before the end of his/her scholarship year will have to wait until his/her scholarship year is over to accept the job.

If circumstances preclude a prize winner from attending their selected school, or should a prize winner withdraw during the year or have their studies interrupted for any reason, the sum assigned for living expenses (or what remains) will be restored to the "Fondation en faveur de l'Art Chorégraphique" and the Board of Directors will determine its use. If a prize winner fails to observe this regulation, particularly if a prize winner decides to forego the scholarship won at the finals, the said prize winner may be required to pay a penalty equivalent to the costs incurred by the Foundation on his or her behalf.

However, if the school agrees to let the scholarship winner accept the job, the monthly payments would be stopped and there would be no penalty.

B. "PRIX DE LAUSANNE APPRENTICE SCHOLARSHIPS"

These prizes, reserved for prize winners over the age of 17 (Senior candidates) at the time of the competition (see * at the bottom of the list below), consist of a one-year apprentice scholarship in one of the following companies and the sum of 20'000 (twenty thousand) Swiss Francs in ten monthly instalments for living expenses during the prize winner's year spent in one of the following companies, according to the prize winner's choice.

* open to prize winners aged 16 and over

A prize winner looking for an apprenticeship with one of the Prix's Partner Companies should look closely at the terms of the apprenticeship. In some instances, this may be a trainee programme. Most of the trainee programmes are administered by a school and may not allow the prize winner to work alongside the company on a daily basis. From a trainee programme the prize winner may only get to dance with the company as and when the repertoire requires. A full apprentice programme usually allows the prize winner to take daily class, rehearse and perform with the company. In making their choice, it is important that the prize winner examine carefully the benefits provided by each situation.

Please contact the Prix de Lausanne office for more details.

If a prize winner chooses a company which expresses reservations about the prize winner's choice, both will agree on discussing this choice with either the Artistic Director or a specialized collaborator appointed by the Artistic Director.

In principle, only one apprenticeship is available from each of the above-mentioned Partner Companies. However, on occasion, a partner company may agree to accept more than one prize winner. When more than one prize winner has selected the same company as their first choice, decisions as to which winner is offered a place are based on each individual's ranking in the finals. Prize winners may not postpone their apprenticeship and may not convert their apprenticeship into cash. As well, apprenticeships only apply to the Partner Companies noted above.

The 20'000 Swiss Francs (for living expenses) are paid in ten monthly instalments as of September 2021. Prize winners are required to open a bank account in the city where the company is located so that the Prix de Lausanne office can transfer the money directly to this account in case an agreement has not been made directly with the company.

The sum of 20'000 Swiss Francs allocated to winners may not be sufficient in some cities to cover all living expenses. Therefore, Prix de Lausanne prize winners are urged to find out the cost of living in their selected city to determine to which extent their families may need to provide additional financial support. Some Partner Companies may provide additional financial assistance and the Prix de Lausanne can inform you if needed.

The awarding of a one-year apprenticeship with a Partner Company is subject to local immigration/employment laws. Additionally, there may need to be consultation with the local/national union body before any apprenticeship is granted. For these reasons, prize winners considering a one-year apprenticeship should have two or three options in mind.

Any prize winner receiving a firm job offer after the time of competition and before the end of his/her apprenticeship year will have to wait until his/her apprenticeship year is over to accept the job.

If circumstances preclude a prize winner from joining their selected company or should a prize winner withdraw during the year or have their training interrupted for any reason, the sum assigned for living expenses (or what remains) will be restored to the "Fondation en faveur de l'Art Chorégraphique" and the board of directors will determine its use. If a prize winner fails to observe this regulation, particularly if a prize winner decides to forego the apprenticeship won at the finals, the said prize winner may be required to pay a penalty equivalent to the costs incurred by the Foundation on his or her behalf.

E. “BEST CANDIDATE FROM A SWISS SCHOOL AWARD”

The best finalist from a Swiss school will receive 2,500 (two thousand five hundred) Swiss Francs. This prize can be awarded to a Swiss finalist or to a non-Swiss finalist if this finalist has resided in Switzerland and has trained in Switzerland for at least 2 years before the competition.

G. “WEB AUDIENCE FAVOURITE AWARD” (TO BE CONFIRMED)

This award is attributed to the most voted candidate by the web spectators that watched the competition through the livestreaming. Vote online directly on Arte Concert’s website the day of the Finals.

Art. 15

AWARDING OF PRIZES

The jury has the right to award or not to award the prizes described in Article 15 (except the Web Audience Favourite Award), according to the results of the finalists. Depending on the percentage of candidates divided in the Junior and Senior categories, the jury has the right to adapt the number of prizes for each category if needed. If other prizes should be put at the disposal of the “Fondation en faveur de l'Art Chorégraphique”, the Foundation or its board of directors would award them as it sees fit.

At least two of the scholarships must be awarded to a finalist in the junior category.

Art. 16

GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

Swiss law is applicable.

The place of jurisdiction is Lausanne (Vaud)
